SEWA Rural to provide vocational training at Jhagadia

Society for Education, Welfare and Action (SEWA)-Rural will provide training in nursing, stitching, basic computer education and self-defence among others at a subsidised cost to students in Jhagadia taluka at its newly constructed building. The aim is to provide education to women. It will also help in their social and economic upliftment. The four-story building of 'Vocational Training Centre' of SEWA Rural has come up in association with Wagh Bakri Tea Group. It contributed through its CSR funds.
