

Wagh Bakri Group launches tea lounge in New Delhi offering variety of teas

Friday, October 21, 2011 08:00 IST

Our Bureau, New Delhi

The Wagh Bakri Tea Group has launched its Tea Lounge in New Delhi.

Set in a contemporary space in Pitampura, the lounge is all set to bring a distinctive experience of relaxed tea drinking in a premium ambience.

Television actress Saakshi Tanwar graced the occasion and cut the ribbon for the launch. Piyush Desai, CMD, Wagh Bakri Tea Group, hosted the launch and introduced the brand to the guests present.

Spread over an area of more than 1,200 sq ft, the lounge brews a wide selection of Indian and international teas including green tea, organic tea, and flavoured teas to name a few. Others include handpicked varieties from Darjeeling, Nilgiri, Sikkim, and Oolong, and those from China, Sri Lanka and Kenya.